

Gen Ed Courses – Harvard Summer School 2021

Please note that Summer School courses that count for Gen Ed credit are not organized in the Course Catalog under a Gen Ed heading, but by subject area. Their Gen Ed course number equivalents are provided here and in the "Notes" section of the Course Catalog.

Aesthetics and Culture (AC)

COMP S-120: Disease, Illness and Health through Literature, Karen Thornber (GENED 1078)

ENGL S-257: Superheroes and Power, Stephanie Burt (GENED 1165)

HUMA S-131: Political Intervention through the Arts, Doris Sommer (GENED 1139)

Histories, Societies and Individuals (HSI)

AAAS S-131: How Did We Get Here? From Slavery to #MeToo, Linda Chavers (GENED 1041)

ANTH S-1150: Can We Know Our Past? Jason Ur (GENED 1105)----also counts for STS

HSCI S-101: Rethinking Darwinism, Janet Browne (GENED 1048)

RELI S-1510: Ballots and Bibles: How and Why Americans Bring Scriptures into their Politics, David Holland (GENED 1062)

SOCI S-186: American Society and Public Policy, Mary Waters (GENED 1092)

Ethics and Civics (EC)

COMP S-131: Moral Inquiry in the Novels of Tolstoy and Dostoevsky, Justin Weir (GENED 1059)

GOVT S-1045: Justice: Ethics in an Age of Pandemic and Racial Reckoning, Sergio Imperato (GENED 1171)

HUMA S-132: Security: Carefree or Careless, John Hamilton (GENED 1020)

Science and Technology in Society (STS)

ANTH S-1150: Can We Know Our Past? Jason Ur (GENED 1105)----also counts for HSI

BIOS S-62: Infectious Diseases and Social Injustice, Donald Goldmann (GENED 1129)

EPS S-58: Natural Disasters, Esther James (GENED 1098)

EPS S-135: Water and the Environment, Kaighin A. McColl (GENED 1156)

SSCI S-131: Can We Choose to be Healthy? Nancy Long Sieber (GENED 1045)