Harvard Summer School Community Agreement

In responding to the pandemic, Harvard Summer School is guided by evidence-based public health practices. Because COVID-19 infects individuals by spreading across and within close community networks, it is essential that every one of us in the campus community uphold a shared obligation and commitment to act prudently, safely, and in accordance with public health directives. The community expectations related to COVID-19, outlined below, represent our individual and shared responsibility for safe practices among all members of the Harvard Summer School community.

Harvard Summer School aims to enable student learning and provide a safe place for students to learn and thrive. We recognize the seriousness of the current public health crisis and will work to promote a secure and supportive learning environment for all students.

Note that these expectations may be updated and revised to reflect additional guidance from the city, state, and federal governments if necessary. The University has adopted these expectations to promote the collective well-being of our community, and specifically the students, staff, and faculty during this time period.

- I will follow University guidance regarding vaccinations, access to campus, physical distancing, masking, testing and tracing, quarantine and isolation, hygiene, and travel. I understand that I will be required to participate in a University-determined testing cadence if I have any on-campus presence, including attending classes, using campus facilities, or living on campus. I understand that my testing account is for my use only, and that I should only test via that account. Any instances of submitting tests for people not myself under my account or under any other account will be referred to the Dean of Students Office.
- I will share truthful information with Harvard University Health Services. I understand that any information that I share with contact tracers is confidential and will only be shared on a need-to-know basis with the appropriate University members.
- I understand that violation of any COVID-19 protocol will be considered a serious violation and will be addressed by the Dean of Students Office. I acknowledge that failing to adhere to these expectations may result in the revocation of student privileges, including my ability to access the Harvard campus and to participate in the Harvard Summer School experience.
- These expectations exist not just for my own health, but also to protect and safeguard the health of those around me, including Harvard University Dining Services and Facilities personnel and other staff who live or work in our buildings.
- I acknowledge and accept that these rules and guidelines may change as life on campus and public health guidance across the country evolve, and as new testing and tracing methods emerge. I agree to abide by any new rules and guidelines promulgated by Harvard for application in the campus setting.
- I understand that I may be withdrawn from Harvard Summer School if the University determines that I am unable to meet the expectations of my course(s) and program.

As a Harvard Summer School student, I agree to uphold community expectations related to COVID-19.
